

Privacy Policy - Murphys Irish Pub

Murphy's Irish Pub (ABN 93 470 892 841) of 43-44 Mandurah Terrace is committed to managing your information in a secure and responsible manner and this privacy policy is based on the National Privacy Principles in the Privacy Act 1988 and on company policies to protect personal information.

Collection of your information Murphys Irish Pub collects personal information for membership that would include your name, address, telephone numbers, date of birth and membership forms.

Camera surveillance (CCTV) operates in the Licensed Area and leased premises to ensure public safety and for the investigation and prosecution of criminal offenses. Licenced Security Guards & Approved Managers wear BodyCam's which record both video & audio. CCTV & BodyCam footage is kept for 21 Days and if you are involved in an incident the venue may archive this information. Security and Management Information will only be disclosed to persons authorised under the Liquor Control Act. Files kept over 21 days are locally encrypted using AES256 and RSA encryption algorithms before it is synced to the cloud. Physical safeguards include the housing of digital recorders in a controlled environment with password protection. The venue also uses a ID Scanner system and more detailed information is advised in the PatronScan Policy on our FAQ page.

Incident registers are also a requirement under Section 116A of the Liquor Control Act that requires the licensee to maintain on the licensed premises a register of incidents that take place at the licensed premises.

Representatives of Murphys Irish Pub may occasionally use portable cameras to take photos/videos for marketing, including on our website and social media. By entering this venue, you agree to having your photo taken for that purpose. Please contact privacy@murphys.ws if you would like us to take down any photos in which you are.

Use and Disclosure of your information

The personal information collected by Murphys Irish pub comprises of Membership, Bookings and personal details collected on entry of our ID scanner and CCTV, and BodyCam footage.

Murphys Irish pub will only disclose your personal information to persons or bodies external to Murphys Irish pub where permitted by the Privacy Act 1988, including in the following circumstances

- Where you consent to the disclosure
- Where required by law including under a subpoena issued by a court
- To enforce a ban from Murphys Irish Pub under section 115 of the Liquor Control Act, including providing information to a third party such as a government agency, your employer or principal to enforce this for health and safety reasons.
- Where a person has been successfully prosecuted for damaging our property or abusing, attacking or injuring our staff or other person through a media release.

Personal information collected by Murphys Irish Pub

We will do not share your membership information with third parties and all personal information is for the specific purposes within the Venue and if this policy was changed we would not without your prior notification. We may from time to time share promotional information with you and you may choose not to receive this information and by contacting us with this request will be removed from the marketing information. Changing and accessing the Information we have about you Murphys uses its best endeavours to ensure that the information it obtains is accurate, complete and up to date. You may access or change information of your membership by either contacting us direct on 9535 2666 or by placing your request via mail or email Murphys Irish Pub can be contacted at Email: privacy@murphys.ws Or via mail to : Privacy

Officer, Murphys Irish Pub Po Box 473, Mandurah WA 6210.

Please allow 7 days for your request to be processed.